Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

An experienced and responsible attitude will be applied to the licensing objectives by the owner/premises licence holder, with a commitment to continual training of herself and staff wherever necessary to uphold the highest standards possible.

Prior to purchasing Swanage News in 2015, the applicant owned / operated a convenience store with an off licence from 2006 – 2015. A number of situations can arise through the sale of alcohol and a calm, firm approach will always be applied to any potentially difficult or antisocial situations with no hesitation in refusing sale, or contacting the necessary authorities.

The staff at Swanage News (V Mckendrick and one other permanent member of staff) are both experienced shop managers and bar managers.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

It is planned that the off sale items will be closely situated by and behind the counter (ie. predominantly a sale request will be made to the experienced staff member who will handle the sale accordingly.)

CCTV is in operation.

Alcohol will not be sold to encourage drunken or disorderly behaviour.

Alcohol will not be sold to underage persons and ID will be essential in all sales to young people we believe to be 25 or under.

Tobacco and Lottery (and fireworks) have been sold from the premises for a number of years and ID is of paramount importance.

c) Public safety

The shop will be assessed by the premises licence holder and periodically reviewed to ensure alcohol is being sold in the most responsible way to avoid any potential public safety issues.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

The opening hours of Swanage News will not be typical of a late night off licence for most of the calendar year, closing from September through to March, April at 18.00.

Extended hours to a maximum of 21:00 (during carnival week) and 19:00 mainly during the summer season will mean any noise/nuisance will not continue late into the evening from Swanage News. Budgens opposite, have a later licence (until 10pm when they close) and minimum noise disturbance or nuisance seems to occur.

Swanage News is a community minded business with a considerate approach to its customers and neighbours and will positively discourage public nuisance.

Alcohol will not be sold to drunk or disorderly customers.

e) The protection of children from harm

Alcohol will not be served to underage people and a strict ID procedure will be in place and will be reviewed.

Registers will be kept of any young persons attempting to purchase alcohol.

They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
